

Application for full membership – Sydney Printmakers Inc - September 2012

Applications for membership of Sydney Printmakers will be assessed at the general meeting of the group to be held on September 26th 2012, at 7pm. The meeting will be at the Workshop Arts Centre, Laurel Street, Willoughby Applicants must submit this completed application form together with a CD of ten images and their CV by August 15th 2012 to Susan Baran, PO Box 3348, Tamarama 2026. No late submissions will be accepted.

A small number of the total applicants will be asked to be present at the September meeting and make a short presentation of their work (with actual examples) to the assembled group of members. A vote is then taken from those present at the meeting.

Acceptance is based on the standard of the prints submitted, dedication and understanding by the artist of the print medium and enthusiasm to be actively involved in all aspects of Sydney Printmakers. There are four meetings and numerous administrative tasks undertaken each year. Planning for exhibitions and being available to assist with various related tasks are examples of the commitment expected of each member.
